Leaving a legacy

Making a will is not easy but probably one of the most important things you can do to help your family and friends once you are no longer here.

Would you consider remembering Devon Young Farmers Clubs in your will as well?

If you would like to talk to someone, in confidence about this please call or email Terry Rounsefell (Honorary Treasurer) for more details.

01363 773441 or email tmr500@googlemail.com

If you are considering making or changing your Will, please take legal advice.

If you wish to leave a legacy to Devon Federation of Young Farmers Clubs the following suggested clauses may be of assistance to you or your solicitor

For a residuary bequest – what remains after specific bequests to family and friends

"I bequeath to Devon Rural Hub all (or ...share) of the residue of my estate and I declare that the receipt of the Honorary Treasurer for the time being or other proper officer of the charity shall be a sufficient discharge of the same."

For a specific legacy. (A fixed amount, a property or some other specific item.)

"I bequeath to Devon Rural Hub the sum of £..... and I declare that the receipt of the Honorary Treasurer for the time being or other proper officer of the charity shall be sufficient discharge for such legacy."

Thank you for your support

Vice Patrons Devon YFC

Still a Young Farmer at heart?

Your chance to help

The benefits

- Vice Patrons will be invited to the Chairmans Reception at the Devon County Show each year.
- As a Vice patron your name will be listed each year in the Devon Young Farmers Clubs annual report
- Plus knowledge that your gift will help secure the future development of Devon Young Farmers Clubs and its members ensuring that the current and future members get as much out of YFC as you did.

The New Devon YFC Headquarters at Cheriton Bishop

Inspiring the next generation of young farmers

Do you have fond memories of your time as a young farmer?

Did you make life long friends at home and abroad?

Have the skills you learnt when you were a young farmer helped you throughout your life?

Please help us to ensure many more young people across Devon have the opportunity to make those same memories, learn those invaluable skills, developing their confidence and continue to see Devon Young Farmers Clubs as the best rural youth movement supporting rural values.

We have recently secured new premises to take Devon YFC into the future, none of this would be possible without the support and generosity of our past members, supporters and friends.

Inspiring a new generation as you were inspired during your time as a member.
