

Club AGM – Voting Rights

- Each YFC member has one vote, and all matters will be decided by a majority of votes of members who are present and voting
- The chairman/woman of any meeting has one vote. When the number of votes for and against are the same, they have the casting vote
- Club leaders (unless a member of the club), associate members, advisory committee members and the county organiser, or the nominated representative of the county federation, cannot vote at the club’s meetings
- The vice-president and life members don’t normally have a vote. However, check the club constitution to clarify as these posts carry a vote in some clubs.

There should be two tellers to count votes who cannot vote themselves.

For decisions made at ordinary meetings, club committee or sub-committees, the quorum (the minimum number of individuals that must be present to make a meeting valid) is one- quarter of the club and one-quarter of any committee or sub-committee.
